By the Lords Juſtices General and General Governours of Ireland.

A PROCLAMATION.

Hu. Armach. Wyndham C. Hen. Boyle.

WHereas his Majeſty hath ſignified to us his Royal Pleaſure, that the Parliament of this Kingdom, which now ſtands prorogued to Tueſday the Nineteenth Day of this Inſtant April, be further prorogued to Tueſday the Second Day of Auguſt next: We do therefore Publiſh and Declare, that the ſaid Parliament be, and accordingly the ſaid Parliament is, hereby further prorogued to Tueſday the Second Day of Auguſt next: Whereof the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament are to take Notice accordingly.

Given at his Majeſty's Caſtle of Dublin, the Eleventh Day of April, 1737.

By their Excellencies Command,

Tho. Tickell.

GOD ſave the KING.

Madrid, April 15, N. S. On the 13th Inſtant their Catholick Majeſties, with the reſt of the Royal Family, arrived here from the Pardo, and intend to ſtay at the Buen Retiro till the 24th, when they are to ſet out for Aranjuez, as uſual. The Maſters of ſome French Tartanes having reported at Marſeilles, and other Places on the Coaſts of Provence and Languedoc, that a contagious Diſtemper was raging in the Principality of Catalonia, the Magiſtrates at Marſeilles gave immediate Orders, that all Veſſels that came from Spain ſhould perform Quarantine, and paſs through all the Formalities practiſed in Caſes of a Plague. The Commander at Perpignan having been informed of the Meaſures that had been taken at Marſeilles, thought proper on his Part to form a Line, by which he cut off all Sort of Communication with Spain by Land, as Marſeilles had done by Sea. A Courier diſpatched to Naples by this Court was the firſt who was refuſed Entrance into France, and was obliged to return back to Barcelona: Upon which the Captain General of Catalonia ſent an Expreſs hither to acquaint this Court with what had happened upon the Frontiers: And as proper Certificates have ſince been tranſmitted to the Governour of Perpignan, as well as to the chief Commanders in Languedoc and Provence, whereby it appears that neither Catalonia, nor any other Province in this Kingdom have been afflicted with any contagious Diſtemper, or any thing more than Colds occaſioned by the extreme Dryneſs of the Weather, there is no Doubt but that this falſe Alarm will ſoon vaniſh, and that a free Communication will ſoon be opened again between theſe Provinces and thoſe of France.

Dreſden, April 29. The Univerſalia are ſent to Poland for the aſſembling a great Council of the Senators of that Kingdom at Frauſtadt on the 8th of July next, at which his Poliſh Majeſty is to aſſiſt. Both the Emperor and the Czarina preſs the Departure of the Saxon Troops for Hungary, and though the Orders are already given for their being ready to march by the middle of next Month, yet it is believed they cannot begin their March till the latter End of it. We have received News here, that Count Munich was gone with 40,000 Men to beſiege Oczakow; and that General Lacy, and the Prince of Heſſe Hambourg, each with a different Body of Troops, are likewiſe marched to obſerve the Enemy and cover the Beſiegers. Count Truchſes, Major-General in the Ruſſian Service, is arrived here, and had his Audience of the King on the 22d Inſtant; when he delivered to his Poliſh Majeſty the King his Maſter's Letter of Recognition.
